

Celebrate Oktoberfest in Proper Cornish Style

Our next event on the Demo Dinner calendar is a Cornish Oktoberfest. Following the success of previous demonstration dinners including a game night, an evening for seafood lovers and most recently a taste of the Westcountry the Farmhouse Restaurant at China Fleet Country Club has announced a Cornish Oktoberfest Demonstration Dinner; German style food using Cornish ingredients.

Executive Head Chef Marc Slater will host the event which will involve discussions on traditional German food, footage from a range of Cornish producers as featured on the menu, and of course a fabulous four course dinner served in a family style service.

Marc said 'These demonstration dinners are very popular with local and regional food lovers and we are delighted to be to hosting our fourth demo dinner at the Farmhouse. I will be demonstrating some of my favourite ways to cook traditional German food using the fantastic array of Cornish produce we have available. Marc added "if you love food this is going to be an un-missable evening; whether you want to learn more about preparation and cooking or you just wish be treated to some great food complimented by like-minded company".

The dinner will to be held on 26th October 2009 and is limited to 28 places. £30 per person to include some beers and wine. To reserve a place please telephone the Farmhouse Restaurant on 01752 854664.
