

New Golf Pro on the Tee at China Fleet

Dominic Rehaag has been appointed the New Golf Pro at China Fleet Country Club. Dominic who grew up in Launceston started playing golf at his local club aged just 13 and went on to win several county and regional junior events as well as playing for Cornwall under 16s and under 18s.

Dominic turned pro aged 22 and after working at several local clubs joins China Fleet play events Dominic was also captain of the Devon PGA in 2003.

On his new appointment Dominic said "I am so lucky to be able to do a job which I enjoy and am passionate about. I like to coach to the individual needs and tailor my coaching to individual requirements. I love helping people play the best golf that they can. I have taught hundreds of golfers of all levels and experience from complete beginners to James Ruth who is currently on the European Tour in South Africa".

Karl Taylor General Manager of China Fleet Country Club added "we are delighted to welcome Dominic on to our team; I am sure will be a great asset to the club, our members and in promoting the game".
